

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS

DIVISION I

No. CA11-177

APRIL FRAZIER

APPELLANT

V.

ARKANSAS DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES

APPELLEE

Opinion Delivered JUNE 29, 2011

APPEAL FROM THE BENTON
COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
[NO. J2009-556-D/N]

HONORABLE JAY T. FINCH, JUDGE

AFFIRMED

RITA W. GRUBER, Judge

This is an appeal from an order terminating appellant April Frazier's rights to her son, J.F. The record shows that the removal was based on Frazier's drug use while she was pregnant with J.F. The record also shows that although appropriate services were offered, Frazier failed to avail herself of them and to complete her case plan, including the requirement that she learn how to meet J.F.'s medical needs. After consideration of all relevant and required factors, the circuit court ultimately found that termination was in J.F.'s best interest. The circuit court set out its reasoning and conclusions in a detailed order.

The only issue in this appeal is the sufficiency of the evidence to support the termination of Frazier's parental rights, specifically the finding of potential harm to J.F. if contact were to continue. Because we are satisfied with the decision of the circuit court and the accompanying quantum of evidence and findings supporting the order, we affirm by
