

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS

DIVISION III
No. CACR12-617

JOSHUA RAY WILSON

APPELLANT

V.

STATE OF ARKANSAS

APPELLEE

Opinion Delivered January 23, 2013

APPEAL FROM THE
CRITTENDEN COUNTY
CIRCUIT COURT
[NO. CR2010-511]

HONORABLE RANDY F.
PHILHOURS, JUDGE

AFFIRMED; MOTION TO WITHDRAW GRANTED

PHILLIP T. WHITEAKER, Judge

This is a no-merit appeal from the revocation of appellant Joshua Wilson's probation. On July 1, 2010, Wilson pled guilty to one count of possession of a controlled substance and one count of theft of services; he was sentenced to ten years' probation on each offense. The State filed a petition to revoke Wilson's probation on November 28, 2011. After a hearing on April 16, 2012, the circuit court entered an order revoking Wilson's probation and ordered him to serve fifteen years in the Arkansas Department of Correction. Wilson filed a timely notice of appeal on May 4, 2012. For the reasons set forth herein, we affirm.

Pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Rule 4-3(k) of the Rules of the Arkansas Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, Wilson's counsel has filed a motion to withdraw on the grounds that the appeal is wholly without merit. Counsel's motion is accompanied by an abstract, addendum, and brief referring to everything in the record that might arguably support an appeal. Counsel's motion includes a list of all rulings adverse to Wilson made by the trial court on all objections, motions, and requests made by either party, with an explanation as to why each adverse ruling is not a meritorious ground for reversal. The clerk of our court furnished Wilson with a copy of his counsel's brief and notified him of his right to file pro se points for reversal within thirty days. Wilson has not filed any points.

From our review of the record and the briefs presented to us, we find compliance with Rule 4-3(k). The appeal is without merit. Accordingly, counsel's motion to withdraw is granted, and the trial court is affirmed.

Affirmed; motion to withdraw granted.

GLOVER and VAUGHT, JJ., agree.

C. Brian Williams, for appellant.

No response.
