

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS

DIVISION IV
No. CR-15-762

ANDREW TYLER PERKINS
APPELLANT

V.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
APPELLEE

Opinion Delivered May 4, 2016

APPEAL FROM THE
MONTGOMERY COUNTY
CIRCUIT COURT
[NO. CR-14-26]

HONORABLE JERRY RYAN, JUDGE

AFFIRMED

WAYMOND M. BROWN, Judge

Appellant Andrew Perkins was found guilty of possession of drug paraphernalia (methamphetamines) and misdemeanor public intoxication by a Montgomery County jury. He was sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment on the possession charge and was fined $100 for public intoxication.

Perkins argues on appeal that the trial court abused its discretion by not granting him a continuance after voir dire. When the only issue is whether the trial court abused its discretion, we may affirm by memorandum opinion.¹ We have examined the parties' briefs and the applicable law, and we find no abuse of discretion by the trial court in denying the continuance. We therefore affirm by memorandum opinion.
