

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS

DIVISION III

No. CA11-679

RICHARD LITTLE

APPELLANT

V.

TYSON POULTRY, INC., AND TYNET, INC.

APPELLEES

Opinion Delivered December 14, 2011

APPEAL FROM THE ARKANSAS
WORKERS' COMPENSATION
COMMISSION [NO. F907508]

AFFIRMED

---

JOHN MAUZY PITTMAN, Judge

Appellant sustained an admittedly compensable shoulder injury when he slipped in the course of his employment with appellee Tyson Poultry, Inc. He filed a claim alleging that he also sustained a compensable injury to his cervical spine during the same incident. This claim was controverted. After a hearing, the Arkansas Workers' Compensation Commission found that appellant failed to prove that he sustained a work-related cervical injury. This appeal followed.

The only issue on appeal concerns the sufficiency of the evidence to support the Commission's findings. Because this is the sole issue before us, and because the Commission's opinion adequately explains the decision, we affirm by memorandum opinion. See In re Memorandum Opinions, 16 Ark. App. 301, 700 S.W.2d 63 (1985).

Affirmed.

VAUGHT, C.J., and GRUBER, J., agree.
