

Roger Keith HAIRSTON v. STATE of Arkansas

CA CR 05-1200

238 S.W.3d 610

Supreme Court of Arkansas
Opinion delivered September 7, 2006

APPEAL & ERROR — MOTION FOR BELATED APPEAL — GOOD CAUSE FOR GRANTING. — An admission by an attorney for a criminal defendant that the record was tendered late due to a mistake on his part is good cause to grant a motion for belated appeal.

Motion for Belated Appeal; granted.

Keil & Goodson, by: Matt Keil, for appellant.

Mike Beebe, Att’y Gen., by: Farhan Khan, Ass’t Att’y Gen., for appellee.

PER CURIAM. Appellant Roger Hairston, by and through his attorney, has filed a motion for belated appeal. His attorney, Matt Keil, states in the motion that, based on his error, the appeal was not timely filed.

This court clarified its treatment of motions for rule on the clerk and motions for belated appeals in McDonald v. State, 356 Ark. 106, 146 S.W.3d 883 (2004). There we said that there are only two possible reasons for an appeal not being timely perfected: either the party or attorney filing the appeal is at fault, or there is “good reason.” McDonald v. State, 356 Ark. at 116, 146 S.W.3d at 891. We explained:

Where an appeal is not timely perfected, either the party or attorney filing the appeal is at fault, or there is good reason that the appeal was not timely perfected. The party or attorney filing the appeal is therefore faced with two options. First, where the party or attorney filing the appeal is at fault, fault should be admitted by affidavit filed with the motion or in the motion itself. There is no advantage in declining to admit fault where fault exists. Second, where the party or attorney believes that there is good reason the appeal was not perfected, the case for good reason can be made in the motion, and this court will decide whether good reason is present.

Id., 146 S.W.3d at 891 (footnote omitted). While this court no longer requires an affidavit admitting fault before we will consider the motion, an attorney should candidly admit fault where he has erred and is responsible for the failure to perfect the appeal. See id.

[1] In accordance with McDonald v. State, supra, Mr. Keil has candidly admitted fault. The motion is, therefore, granted. A copy of this opinion will be forwarded to the Committee on Professional Conduct.

Motion granted.
