

Antonio BRITT v. STATE of Arkansas

CR. 97-200

942 S.W.2d 251

Supreme Court of Arkansas
Opinion delivered April 14, 1997

APPEAL & ERROR — MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL DENIED. —

Where the attorney for appellant filed a motion to withdraw as counsel, stating that it would be in the best interest of all concerned and that another attorney had expressed an interest in handling the case, the supreme court, noting that no motion to appoint substitute counsel had been filed on behalf of appellant, denied the motion.

Motion to Withdraw as Counsel; denied.

Ronald C. Wilson, for appellant.

No response.

PER CURIAM. Ronald C. Wilson, attorney for appellant, Antonio Britt, has filed a motion to withdraw as counsel, stating that it would be in the best interest of all concerned.

The motion further states that another attorney, Don Forrest, has expressed an interest in handling the case. However, as of this date, no motion to appoint substitute counsel has been filed on behalf of appellant.

[1] The motion is, therefore, denied.
