

Cite as 2010 Ark. 505

SUPREME COURT OF ARKANSAS

IN RE HONORABLE
ELANA CUNNINGHAM WILLS

Opinion Delivered December 16, 2010

PER CURIAM

Justice Elana Cunningham Wills was appointed to serve as an Associate Justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court in 2008, and she has drawn praise from the bench and bar for the quality of her work. Prior to joining the court, she had a distinguished career in the Office of the Attorney General, working twenty years in the Opinions Division, including more than eleven years as the Deputy Attorney General for Opinions.

She is meticulous in her research, an indefatigable worker, and a precise legal wordsmith, which, of course, comes from her years of experience as an opinion writer. Her expertise in researching legislative history and statutory construction assisted the court immeasurably. She was articulate in conference and ably presented her point of view, which usually prevailed. We know that the state of Arkansas has not heard the last of Justice Wills, and we wish her the best of luck in her future endeavors.

Chief Justice Jim Hannah

Justice Donald L. Corbin

Justice Robert L. Brown

Justice Jim Gunter

Justice Paul E. Danielson

Justice Ronald Sheffield