PRO SE MOTION FOR
CERTIFICATE OF APPEALABILITY
[CIRCUIT COURT OF JEFFERSON
COUNTY, CV 2008-27, HON.
ROBERT H. WYATT, JR., JUDGE]

MOTION DENIED.

PER CURIAM

Appellant Edward Loveless filed a pro se pleading styled as a petition for declaratory judgment and writ of mandamus in circuit court. The court dismissed the petition and appellant lodged an appeal of the order in this court. We denied a petition for writ of certiorari and dismissed the appeal. Loveless v. Norris, 08-533 (Ark. Sept. 25, 2008) (per curiam). Appellant moved for reconsideration of the decision and we denied the motion. Loveless v. Norris, 08-533 (Ark. Nov. 20, 2008) (per curiam). Appellant has now filed a “request for a certificate of appealability” in this court.

In his motion, appellant does not clearly identify the relief he seeks. He appears to desire this court to provide some order to facilitate a petition for writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court. He does not, however, provide a basis for the request and we are not aware of any rule or provision to support such a request. Because appellant does not provide any basis upon which relief can be granted, we deny the motion.

Motion denied.
